

MTVNHD HIGHLIGHTS - MAY 2011

MTVNHD LIVE VIBRATIONS: DIDDY DIRTY MONEY

MAY 1ST 22:00

When P.Diddy's not jet-skiing round St Tropez, cutting deals on his massive yacht, schmoozing with fellow A-List celebs and generally acting like an international playboy, he still finds time for doing what he does best – bringing the beats! Remind yourself why Mr Diddy became famous in the first place, as MTV presents this body-rocking live extravaganza.

ROCK AM RING 2010: DIZZEE RASCAL

MAY 8TH 22:00

Dizzee Rascal has risen from the Grime scene's most gifted challenger to become the de facto Heavyweight Champion of the British charts. A glittering run of Number 1 singles makes his position unquestionable and he was back for more fun at last year's Rock am Ring festival. If you thought Holiday and Bonkers sounded good on your mp3 player, wait till you hear it booming out live from the Ring's massive sound system. Rock on!

RADIOHEAD: LIVE FROM THE BASEMENT

MAY 15TH 22:00

This 2008 live video album by alternative rock aristocrats Radiohead features live performances of songs from their sublime album In Rainbows, including the brilliant Nude and All I Need, as well as older tracks such as Myxomatosis, Optimistic, Where I End and You Begin and The Gloaming. The best live band in the world? Prepare to be convinced.

ROCK AM RING 2010: MUSE

MAY 22ND 22:00

The revellers at this year's Rock am Ring were there for one thing and one thing alone: to rock! Yup, Germany's biggest, baddest music festival is among the world's premier music events, a fact reflected in its super-stellar line-up.

360 SESSIONS: MARK RONSON

MAY 29TH 21:00

MTV's 360 SESSIONS is a unique music series driven entirely by the artists and filmed in major cities around the world, including New York, LA, London, Cardiff and Copenhagen. In this episode, DJ, producer - of a certain Ms Amy Winehouse – and performer Mark Ronson shows viewers around his New York home and studio. Later he plays his favourite tracks in a special performance from Brixton Academy in London.
