

COVERING CONFLICT ON SOCIAL MEDIA

KATERYNA KRUK, INTERNET ADVERTISING CONFERENCE, PRAGUE

-
- Role of social media in modern journalism – additional source of information or additional problem?
 - Credibility of social media as a source of information.
 - Disinformation, manipulation and propaganda.
 - Covering conflict on social media- practical experience.

-
- New field for sharing news and ideas.
 - Alternative to classical news agencies.
 - Speed and flexibility.
 - Social media is additional source of information.
 - Credibility.

-
- Social media as additional source of information:
 - EuroMaidan,
 - Civil War in Syria,
 - MH17 investigation,
 - Russian invasion in Ukraine.

-
- How social media are used to "pollute" media space.
 - Trolls – who are they and why are they so dangerous?
 - Disinformation and manipulation – scale of the problem.

-
- Practical experience of covering EuroMaidan – describing as a participant.
 - Practical experience of covering Russian invasion in Eastern Ukraine – describing as a remote observer.
 - Case study of trolls attack on YouTube – algorithm of an attack.

Thank you for your attention!